

Kratos Receives $8.5 Million in Microwave Electronic Product Orders in Support of C5 Programs

July 17, 2018

SAN DIEGO, July 17, 2018 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Kratos Defense & Security Solutions, Inc. (Nasdaq: KTOS), a leading National Security Solutions provider, announced today that its Microwave Electronics Division (KMED) has recently received approximately $8.5 million in microwave electronic orders in support of certain Command, Control, Communication, Computing and Combat (C5) System programs. KMED is an industry leader in microwave electronic components and subsystems which support multiple C5, ballistic missile defense, electronic warfare, radar and other platforms, programs and systems for national security related and other customers. Work under these recent contract awards will be performed at secure Kratos manufacturing facilities. Due to competitive, customer related and other considerations, no additional information will be provided related to these contract awards.

Yonah Adelman, President of KMED, said, "Our entire organization is focused on the rapid and innovative development and fielding of leading technology microwave electronics and related products and solutions in support of our customers' mission critical system requirements."
