

Kratos Named 2012 Top Simulation & Training Company by Military Training Technology

SAN DIEGO, Nov. 5, 2012 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Kratos Defense & Security Solutions, Inc.(Nasdaq:KTOS), a leading National Security Solutions provider, announced today that it has been named a 2012 Top Simulation & Training Company by Military Training Technology magazine. The company was selected by the editorial board as well as a panel of independent experts. In addition to the selection, Kratos also received special recognition from the panel as an industry leader in innovation.

Kratos was presented the award in recognition of the research-based methodologies and techniques it uses to implement outcome-driven training solutions. Kratos specializes in developing custom training solutions that maximize the readiness and performance of Warfighters, workforces and adult learners, including:

- Design and development of full- and part-task training systems
- Developing computer-based training solutions, including courseware, simulations, gaming, social learning and more
- Identifying manpower, personnel and training requirements and competency models to create training programs engineered to reach specific performance objectives

Phil Carrai, President of Kratos Technology & Training Solutions, stated, "We are very pleased to receive this award from Military Training Technology. It is extremely gratifying to have the quality of our work recognized. This is a tribute to the creativity and dedication of our developers, designers, instructors, simulation and gaming experts, engineers and all the members of our training teams."

Kratos provides numerous training solutions to the U.S. Army, U.S. Navy and other military services with a specific expertise in the areas of C5ISR, Aviation Maintenance/Operations, Surface Platforms and Ground Systems.
