

Kratos Receives $15 Million in Microwave Electronic Product Orders in Support of C5 Systems

November 8, 2019

SAN DIEGO, Nov. 08, 2019 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Kratos Defense & Security Solutions, Inc. (Nasdaq: KTOS), a leading National Security Solutions provider, announced today that its Kratos Microwave Electronics Division (KMED) has recently received approximately $15 million in orders in support of Command, Control, Communication, Computing and Combat System (C5) related orders. KMED is a leading provider of C5 products in support of missile, radar, missile defense, electronic warfare, communication and other systems. Work under these recent orders will be performed in secure Kratos production facilities. Due to competitive, customer related and other considerations, no additional information will be provided related to these recent contract awards.

Yonah Adelman, President of KMED, said, "Over the past few years we have been focused on attaining designed in, sole source positions on a number of large new programs, certain of which are now entering production. We are proud to have received these recent contract awards."
