

Kratos Awarded $4.4 Million in New Homeland Security System Contract Work

SAN DIEGO, May 3, 2010 (GlobeNewswire via COMTEX News Network) -- Kratos Defense & Security Solutions, Inc. (Nasdaq:KTOS), a leading National Security, Information Technology, Assurance and Public Security Solutions provider, today announced that its Public Safety and Security segment has recently received new security system deployment and integration contract work of approximately $4.4 million, including options. The contract awards include security system design, deployment and integration work for a large, international petroleum and natural resources corporation, a large regional hospital and a public museum of natural science. All of Kratos' work will be performed at locations in the United States.

Kratos' Public Safety and Security segment specializes in designing, deploying, integrating, operating and maintaining security systems for strategically important assets and infrastructure primarily located in the United States. This business unit of Kratos specializes in the design, deployment, integration and operation of security and other solutions, utilizing CCTV, analytic, biometric, facility, environmental, access control, perimeter protection and sensor products, solutions and systems, as well as building automation.

"We are very pleased with the award of these new contracts, which we believe represent a continued affirmation of Kratos' capabilities, expertise and reputation in protecting some of our country's most important assets and infrastructure," said Ben Goodwin, President of Kratos' Public Safety and Security segment. "The award of these important security integration projects are a reflection on the outstanding team of employees we have, and their commitment to providing leading public safety and security solutions."
