

Kratos Successfully Deploys $3 Million National Emergency Communications System for Major U.S. Rail System

SAN DIEGO, Aug. 24, 2011 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Kratos Defense & Security Solutions, Inc. (Nasdaq:KTOS), a leading National Security Solutions provider, announced today that its wholly owned subsidiary Henry Bros. Electronics, Inc. (HBE) has recently deployed a $3 million emergency communications system upgrade for a national rail service provider. This specialized first responder communications systems upgrade improves and enhances the communication coverage and quality of service for the rail service company's employees and first responders. No additional information regarding this communication and security system deployment is provided due to customer specific and other sensitivities and considerations.

Ben Goodwin, President of Kratos Public Safety and Security Solutions, stated, "Kratos/HBE has a strong set of capabilities to support our customers' need for security and emergency communications. The Special Product Group of Kratos/HBE allows us to support customers with wireless communication and security systems for special purpose applications. These capabilities are a true differentiator and are an important part of our strategy, enabling us to provide more services to our key customers in transportation infrastructure."
