

Kratos Sponsors AFCEA / SPAWAR Systems Center Pacific 2010 C4ISR Symposium Showcasing Cyber Products and Services

SAN DIEGO, May 20, 2010 (GlobeNewswire via COMTEX News Network) -- Kratos Defense & Security Solutions, Inc. (Nasdaq:KTOS), a leading National Defense, Information Technology, Assurance and Security Solutions provider, today announced it is once again one of the sponsors of the annual C4ISR Symposium in San Diego, CA. The 2010 C4ISR Symposium (May 18th-21st.) is co-hosted by the Armed Forces Communications and Electronics Association (AFCEA) San Diego Chapter and SPAWAR Systems Center Pacific (SSC-Pacific). This year's 2010 C4ISR Symposium theme is "Tools and Technologies for Protecting our Critical Infrastructure". As a sponsor of this year's event (booth #16), Kratos will be displaying two of its network management and protection products: dopplerVUE(R), and NeuralStar(R), as well as showcasing its Net-Centric Software Development, Cyber Security, and Information Assurance services. These products and services protect the critical infrastructure America relies upon daily.

Vic Wilson, Senior Vice President of Engineering and Analysis Business Unit, said, "Supporting the 2010 C4ISR Symposium gives Kratos the opportunity to display our advanced solutions to decision-makers, and our support efforts for key customers."

Dave Carter, Kratos' President of Defense Engineering Solutions, said, "We are very pleased to have this opportunity to build our relationship with SSC-Pacific and the AFCEA San Diego Chapter by being one of this year's sponsors."
