

Kratos Receives $1 Million Production Award for Specialized Electronics Supporting United States Navy P-8A Aircraft

SAN DIEGO, Dec. 14, 2011 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Kratos Defense & Security Solutions, Inc. (Nasdaq:KTOS), a leading National Security Solutions provider, announced today that its Herley Industries, Inc. subsidiary has been awarded a contract valued at approximately $1 million by a major U.S. prime contractor for the production of Integrated Microwave Assemblies (IMAs) to be used in the U.S. Navy's P-8A aircraft. The P-8A Poseidon is the U.S. Navy's newest maritime patrol and reconnaissance aircraft. It is a long-range anti-submarine warfare, anti-surface warfare, intelligence, surveillance and reconnaissance aircraft capable of broad-area, maritime and littoral operations.

Richard F. Poirier, President of Herley, commented, "This is a follow-on award for the Low Rate Initial Production (LRIP) for the P-8A Program, following the successful completion of the development phase. Herley has now received contracts totaling $1.8 million for LRIP lot II. We are pleased to be a part of this important U.S. Navy program and anticipate receiving follow-on contracts from this prime contractor on this program over the next 15 years. This work will be performed in our Herley New England operation and my congratulations go to John McClay, General Manager, and the entire Herley New England team."

Herley Industries, Inc. is a leader in the design, development and manufacture of microwave technology solutions for the defense, aerospace and medical industries worldwide. Based in Woburn, MA, Herley has seven manufacturing locations and approximately 1,000 employees. Additional information about the company can be found on the Internet at <http://www.herley.com/>
