Sent to all Kratos employees on Monday morning with press release included as an attachment:

24 November 2008

The attached press release announces that we have reached agreement on a merger with Digital Fusion, Inc. of Huntsville, AL. As we have discussed previously, the defense industry is seeing significant consolidation. We continue to execute on our strategic plan by being a consolidator of other small or mid-sized government contractors to help us realize our goal of being the premier mid-tier national and homeland security, and public safety and security, contractor.

As the U.S. government continues with its Base Realignment and Closure (BRAC) plan, certain geographic locations benefit as activities formerly performed at a variety of locations are now being focused on a smaller number of key areas. We will continue to focus our effort on these BRAC recipient locations, primarily San Diego and the greater Washington, D.C. area, in addition to Huntsville.

I am very excited about Digital Fusion joining the Kratos family. More information will be provided as we get closer to closing the deal. Please read through the attached press release for additional information on this transaction.
