

Kratos Receives $9.0 Million in Electronic Warfare, Missile and Radar System Product Orders

SAN DIEGO, Dec. 29, 2014 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Kratos Defense & Security Solutions, Inc. (Nasdaq:KTOS), a leading National Security Solutions provider, announced today that its Electronic Products Division (KEPD) has recently received $9.0 million in electronic warfare, missile and radar system program orders, including the delivery of specially packaged and state of the art integrated microwave assemblies. KEPD is an industry leader in the design, manufacture and packaging of microwave and RF subsystems and components, radar instrumentation, electronic warfare simulators and flight systems. KEPD products support the United States' and its allies' most sophisticated radar, missile, electronic warfare, intelligence, surveillance and reconnaissance and unmanned aerial systems. Work under these contract awards will be performed in secure KEPD manufacturing facilities. Due to customer specific and other considerations, no additional information is being provided.

Rich Poirier, President of KEPD, said, "We are proud to have been selected to support these customers' strategic national security related platforms."
