

Kratos Named 2011 Top Simulation & Training Company

SAN DIEGO, Sept. 27, 2011 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Kratos Defense & Security Solutions, Inc. (Nasdaq:KTOS), a leading National Security Solutions provider, announced today that it has been named a 2011 Top Simulation & Training Company by Military Training Technology magazine. The company was selected by the editorial board as well as a panel of independent experts as a company that is quickly rising in the industry and is considered up-and-coming.

Kratos was presented the award in recognition of the research-based methodologies and techniques used to implement outcome-driven training solutions. Kratos specializes in developing custom training solutions that maximize the readiness and performance of Warfighters, workforces and adult learners, including:

- Building Full- and Part-Task training systems
- Developing computer-based training solutions including courseware, simulations, gaming, social learning and more
- Identifying manpower, personnel and training requirements and competency models to create training programs engineered to reach specific performance objectives

Phil Carrai, President of the Kratos Technology and Training Division, stated, "We are very pleased to receive this award from Military Training Technology. It is extremely gratifying to have the quality of our work recognized and a tribute to the creativity and dedication of our developers, designers, instructors, simulation and gaming experts, engineers and all the members of our training teams."

Kratos provides numerous training solutions to the U.S. Army, U.S. Navy and other military services with a specific expertise in the areas of C5ISR systems operations and maintenance training for mission critical Warfighter platforms such as the UH-60 Black Hawk, CH-47F Chinook, AH-64A Apache, M2/M3A2 ODS Bradley, M270 Multiple Launch Rocket System (MLRS) and M147 High Mobility Artillery Rocket System (HIMARS). In addition, Kratos Learning Solutions provides technology-based training and learning support solutions to federal, state and local government agencies and to businesses.
