

Kratos Partners With Operation Homefront to Provide School Supplies to Children of Military Families

SAN DIEGO, Jul 22, 2009 (GlobeNewswire via COMTEX News Network) -- Kratos Defense & Security Solutions, Inc. (Nasdaq:KTOS), a leading national security, information technology and public safety solutions provider, today announced that it had provided a significant donation to Operation Homefront in the form of 1,000 backpacks that together contained more than $15,000 in school supplies.

Each backpack given to Operation Homefront contains essential school supplies, and are being distributed to military families across Georgia. The children of troops stationed at Fort Stewart in Hinesville, GA, will be the first to receive the backpacks. The initial distribution took place during the Fort Stewart Education Fair on Tuesday, July 21. Future distributions will occur at Fort Gordon near Augusta, Fort Benning in Columbus, Robins Air Force Base in Warner Robins, and to the National Guard and Marines.

"We take great pride in this relationship as it directly benefits war fighters and their families, which is at the core of what Kratos is all about and the markets we serve," said Eric DeMarco, President and CEO of Kratos. "We are also very proud of our employees and their families who took the time to collect all the supplies and fill the backpacks for this very worthwhile cause."

Operation Homefront provides assistance and morale support to our troops, the families they leave behind and to wounded warriors when they return home. Operation Homefront leads more than 4,500 volunteers in 30 chapters nationwide and has provided critical assistance to more than 45,000 military families in need.
